

December Director's Report

- Staff appreciation gift was a $100 visa gift card for all their stellar work during the year, especially with all of the rough work that has been happening lately.
- Library was closed for 4 days from 12/13-12/16.
- Ecolab stopped by to put up new traps for mice.
- Public hearing has been requested for the book, "Let's Talk About It."
- Interim Director attended the county commission meeting.
- Hi-line has started to replace the lights throughout the library.
- Still looking for someone for the 10-15 hour position, that can work all day Saturdays. Ideally high school or college student.
- There is a meeting in the process of being scheduled with an ALA rep about how they commend our actions when dealing with the book challenge.
- Flyers were spread around town with the libraries information on it with specific photocopies of pages from the book. Called the police and trying to file an official report/claim.
